- Shared court services with Oaklyn have resulted in a $100,000 credit to the borough.
- New ordinances on fencing and self-storage regulations, introduced in September, have been passed. Businesses are now required to install and maintain coverings over fences.
- A new gas station is under contract at Laurel Road and White Horse Pike.
- The borough has not received any information regarding a Plasma Center at the previous Rite Aid location.
- The petition supporting Kennedy Pharmacy has received strong community backing. Residents are strongly encouraged to contact our state legislators about the pending closure.
- An executive session was held to discuss ongoing litigation involving the former Bradlees and Laurel Mills properties. No action was taken at this time. Updates will be provided when legally permissible.
- We are continuing to work towards our Fair Share Housing obligation. This is a legal policy for all communities to provide their fair portion of affordable housing opportunities.
- Please join us at our next council meeting on November 13th at 6:30 pm on the first floor of the Justice Center.
