LAUREL MILLS SHOPPING CENTER UPDATE

On Tuesday February 11, 2025 a Case Management Conference was held in the Camden County Superior Court in the Matter of Laurel Mills LLC. As anticipated, an agreement was ratified between the owner (Laurel Mills LLC) to sell the property to D.R. Horton "America's Home Builder" who will complete the project. Consequently, the litigation with Laurel Mills LLC has been terminated, with rights reserved by the Borough.

We are extremely pleased to have D.R. Horton as the new developer. Please see the following hyperlink for more information regarding D.R. Horton.
